Several officeholders have been added to the guest list for the 2013 Dubois County Republican Lincoln Day Luncheon to be held on Saturday, February 9th at the Huntingburg Event Center, according to GOP Chairman Eric Schue.

The featured Speaker for the event is Lt. Governor Sue Ellspermann. Also speaking briefly will be 8th District Congressman, Dr. Larry Bucshon and State Representatives Mark Messmer and Lloyd Arnold.

Special guests include Indiana Secretary of State Connie Lawson and Indiana State Treasurer Richard Mourdock.

Also attending will be Dubois County Republican officeholders and State, District and County GOP officials.

The doors of the Event Center, 200 E 14th Street, will open at 11:00 am with the program and meal starting at noon. Food will be provided by the Schnitzelbank Restaurant & Catering and there will be musical entertainment. Tickets for the event are $20.00 per person and may be reserved by calling GOP Headquarters at 1-812-630-8558.

The Lincoln Day Luncheon is a traditional party event celebrating the birth of the Republican Party and America's 16th President.
